The Directory Sign Reimagined...

The Sierra free-standing series combines full HD 1080p resolutions, and 16/7 commercial operation times to easily deliver clear concise messaging to your families and guests.

Display any number of personalized service announcements that can be customized for each decedent with background themes from the FuneralScreen resource library to highlight a hobby, profession, lifestyle, or religious preference.

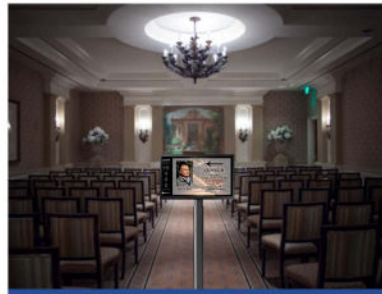

Grow your business and build trust within your community by displaying pre-designed advertisements designed for funeral homes from the FuneralScreen library.

Applications for free-standing digital signage in the funeral home.

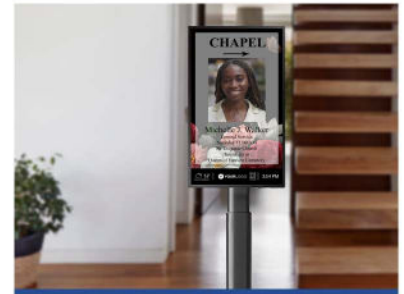

Lobby Directory Signs

Create a lasting first impression on your families and guests, and an inviting atmosphere in your lobby while providing clear and concise messaging with professional looking service announcements, and ads.

Room Signs

When placed inside or outside a room, digital signage is an effective solution for displaying the location/room name as well as the event taking place in it. Signs can display pre-need advertising when the room is not being utilized.

Wayfinding

Incorporating wayfinding digital signage in your funeral home helps visitors orient themselves, find what they're looking for, in addition to displaying service details. Free standing signs can be positioned anywhere in your funeral home.
